

Good day. I hope you can assist me. I would like to file a complaint regarding a serious incident involving unwanted and forced actions done against me by an individual. This situation has caused me fear, distress, and emotional harm. I am reaching out to the barangay for help because I believe this matter needs immediate attention and proper intervention. I respectfully request guidance and assistance in addressing this case and ensuring my safety.